

Consider an Annual Partnership with the Collaborative Law Institute of Minnesota and the opportunity to be an active participant in the CLI community.

Who is CLI Minnesota? The Collaborative Law Institute of Minnesota is a dedicated network of family law professionals committed to transforming the way families navigate legal challenges. We specialize in resolving conflicts with respect, integrity, and compassion—placing families and children at the heart of every decision. By combining expertise in legal, financial, parenting, and relational dynamics, we provide holistic, out-of-court solutions tailored to each family's unique needs.

Collaborative Practice empowers families to build sustainable, equitable outcome while preserving relationships and promoting long-term well-being.

Who are CLI Members? CLI members are Collaborative Practice attorneys, mental health professionals, and financial advisors working in the Family Law area, committed to resolving family law matters.

CLI Partnership opportunities include annual recognition of your brand in CLI marketing, opportunities for presentations to members, blogging, ad placement, free attendance to networking events, socials and trainings, and free attendance and exhibit opportunity at the annual two-day Forum in December. Please review the Annual Partnership levels below and contact the CLI of Minnesota office with questions.
